

The water tower is a 'blank canvas' upon which a mural could be painted

Rock marks the location of the former Cobb & Co Changing Station in Yuleba

Interesting old shops in Yuleba could be included on some sort of heritage 'trail'

Old shops and bottle trees. The history of the town could be told in many ways

Murals already exist in Yuleba telling the story of the Cobb & Co history

The blank wall of the bush fire brigade building could also be used for a mural
