

The old hardware store should be one of many buildings included on the trail

Injune has numerous old buildings, each with fascinating histories

Injune's first bank is a must-include site

The Lagoon Walk is popular with people camped overnight at the caravan park

Landmark buildings such as the Post Office (above) and the hotel (below) should be included on the proposed Injune heritage trail

Yellow lines: possible route of proposed heritage trail.

Pink line: existing path.

Green line: existing Lagoon Walk.

Red line: proposed connecting path.

Note: Proposed heritage trail alignment is conceptual only. Not all possible sites shown. Further consultation and detailed investigations will be required.
