Portfolio: Organisational Performance

Key issues include benchmarking, best practice study, internal and external measurement, reporting.

Background

Jan, in partnership with her husband Graham currently runs a grazing enterprise known as 'Gleneel' in the Mungallala district. Jan and Graham were married in 1985 and have two sons, both of whom Jan taught through distance education.

Personal Focus

As a member of Council, Jan is committed to working closely together with fellow Councillors to ensure fair and equitable representation for all residents of the Region. Aging infrastructure and road networks have been of interest for Jan and her new portfolio, Organisational Management, will ensure additional areas of interest. Items covered under Jan's portfolio include streamlining of reporting processes to Council, fine tuning agendas and minutes and surveying of the community. Jan is an organised person who realises that to make the bigger picture items work; we must have all the smaller functions done efficiently and effectively.

Professional & Community Profile

Jan has a solid background in local government as a former employee of Council from 1982 – 1986 with the Booringa Shire Council before being elected to the Booringa Shire Council from 2004 – 2008 and most recently the Maranoa Regional Council.

Jan is passionate about her local community and has demonstrated this commitment through representation and participation in multiple community organisations over an extended period of time. Today Jan continues this commitment and is currently a member of the following groups:

- Maranoa Retirement Village Committee
- Regional Arts Development Committee
- The Maranoa Diggers Race Club
- Mungallala Progress Association
- Booringa Heritage Group
- Property Rights
- Mungallala Aerial Baiting
