About the Roma region

The Roma region is made up of several townships and communities – Injune, Mitchell, Surat, Yuleba, and Wallumbilla, with Roma as its major centre. Each town has their own individual charm, and all share a welcoming attitude and a strong sense of country hospitality.

Roma and its surrounding towns are located in the Maranoa region of Southwest Queensland, just 500 km west of the state's capital, Brisbane. The Maranoa region covers 58,830 km, with a population of over 13,000.

Almost 400,000 visitors per year travel to the Roma region to experience a taste of the outback – along with the charm and character of country life.

The Roma region has the comforts of a country town with all the conveniences of the city. Within the region, you'll find major supermarkets and bank branches, along with a diverse selection of boutique, convenience, and specialty stores. Community and recreational facilities including libraries, public pools, gyms, and sports grounds are also available.

There's more than meets the eye in the Roma region... Host your next conference, festival, sporting event or celebration here and discover where country meets the Outback.

Why the Roma region?

Why choose us for your next event?

Closer than you think:

Roma is located just half a day's drive or a one-hour flight west of Queensland's capital city, Brisbane. Once you're here, parking is free, commutes are short, and everything is at your fingertips.

Unique location:

The Roma region, where country meets the Outback, offers the perfect blend of authentic experiences with modern comfort, convenience, and accessibility.

Country hospitality:

It's good old-fashioned country hospitality that sets us apart. Immerse yourself in country life, where friendly locals are eager to share stories and make you feel right at home.

Outback experiences:

Unique events need unique experiences. Combining country charm and outback character, there's no shortage of experiences on offer here in the Roma region. And, there's always more to reveal!

Our track record:

The Roma region has been home to many successful, large-scale events and festivals which bring in high visitor numbers – Easter in the Country, Santos Festival of Rugby, Roma Cup and the Cobb & Co Festival to name just a few.

Hire & Services

The Roma region offers a range of event hire and service businesses, covering event styling to furniture hire to catering.

Contact Maranoa Regional Council's Events Team for more information.

Accommodation

With accommodation options spread throughout the region, many within walking distance to the CBD, you can enjoy the best of both worlds: authentic Outback and country experiences with comfort, convenience, and accessibility.

The Roma region often experiences high demand for accommodation, due to the influx of FIFO (fly-in, fly-out) workers, business travellers and other visitors. To ensure availability, it is strongly recommended that event attendees book their accommodation well in advance to secure their rooms.

For those seeking a more distinctive experience, consider a farm stay, boutique B&B, or glamping under the stars at an Outback retreat.

Independent campsites are also located across the region. Please contact the local Visitor Information Centre for more information.
